| REMARKS | | |
| | | |
| | | |
| | This is UNEVALUATED Information | 25X1 |
| . 1. | Politicians and journalistsbelieve that the Belgrade talks indicate that neither Khrushchev nor Bulganin are the real leaders of the USSR. | 25X1 |
| 2. | It may be expected that the Satellite governments, by order of the USSR, will make favorable offers to Yugoslavia. Moscow needs a rapprochement between Belgrade and its Satellites in order to be able to counter all Western arguments on the enslavement of the Soviet Satellites. | |
| 3. | | |
| | | 25 X |
| | Comment. It is very possible that Moscow will grant the individual Satellites a certain political freedom. Since this freedom is, however, restricted in dealings with Yugoslavia and is furthermore controlled, by Moscow, it appears to be rather spurious. In the long run, the Soviets may favor the idea of a Balkan Federation. | |
